

03

Why non governmental organization?

MAKING DEWO(BA(V W O A Civic Traditions in Modern Italy ROBERT D. PUTNAM

FIGURE 4.1
Institutional Performance in the Italian Regions, 1978–1985 Highest Performance Average Performance Lowest Performance

Why Lviv.

03

- Ouring the twentieth century Lviv awareness of civil society was shaped by four different countries, four cultures, each of which left its mark on the local community of the city.
- One of the first cities in Ukraine which City Counsil had "Department of civic participation"
- There are about 300 non-governmental organisations which take an active part in the community life of the city.

Research strategy

Theoretical part

- Study theoretical framework necessary for defining the term "NGO", and also study the most significant NGO theories.
- Study Lviv NGO activity since 1991;
- describe a set of factors which influenced the activity of Lviv NGOs after independence gaining, e.g
- political,

- cultural factors;

Research strategy.

CS

- Rempirical part of research strategy
- > In-depth interview with.
- CR NGOs
- Activist Groups
- public administration
- > content analysis

Helmut Anheier

" Dimensions of the Third Sector: Comparative Perspectives on Structure and Change"

CB

- They are organized, i.e., they possess some institutional structure
- They are private, i.e. institutionally separate from the government.
- They are non-profit-distributing, i.e. not returning any profits generated to their owners or
- a directors.
- They are self-governing, i.e. equipped to control their own activities.

03

○ Why they exist?

™ How?

So what?

Time frames

Chronologically, the work embraces the period from 1991 to the present. The opening frame, the year 1991, is connected with the Soviet Union collapse, but it is also the period when the Ukrainian state was developing together with its grassroots civil activity – NGOs and political parties. The following years were marked by gradual development of the third sector.

Structure of 03

The thesis will consist of an introduction, six chapters, and complete list of sources and an annex. The first chapter will have an introductory character. It will present theoretical aspects of the research, give the theory of NGOs and their activities.

CB

- The second chapter will have descriptive nature and it will be devoted to the analysis of the conditions of NGOs development.
- The third chapter is devoted to the analysis of particular NGOs and their activity in Lviv. The chapter will dwell upon their type, status, financial situation and number of participants/members.